Dear Parents/ Carers

Welcome to our weekly newsletter. If you are a Year 11 parent, you will see inside a summary document of all the dates for Post-16 Open Evenings in the local area. We also look forward to welcoming you to our Post-16 Evening on Thursday 12th October. This will commence at 6.00pm and will allow you to speak to all of our Post-16 institutions in one place. Inside you will also find our Year 11 mock timetable, as all students should now be commencing their revision.

Lots of 'Wow Work' in this week's edition. Well done to all of those students included.

Finally, we have our Macmillan assembly by Form 9HC on Monday. After the excellent coffee morning, this will be an opportunity for the school to understand the work of MacMillan.

Have a nice weekend.

Yours faithfully

Julian Kirby
Headteacher

Report Remove

Report remove is tool for under 18s to report nude or sexual images or videos of themselves that have been shared online, to see if they can be removed from the internet.

Report Remove has been developed by the NSPCC and the Internet Watch Foundation (IWF). The IWF is a UK charity that aims to minimise the online availability of images that meet the legal definition of child sexual abuse material.

There are many reasons why young people may share nude images, and the sharing of them among young people has become the perceived norm. But when a young person loses control of the image, it can be very distressing. It's important that young people don't feel judged when this happens. They should feel supported and be reminded that Report Remove is there to help.

How to use Report Remove

Direct the young person to childline.org.uk/remove so they can use Report Remove. You can support them to follow these steps.

- 1 Confirm their age. They may be asked if they want to prove their age using ID.
- 2 Log into or create a Childline account.
- 3 Submit image/video to IWF for review.

Childline will send updates on the outcome of their report and provide further support where needed.

What can be reported to the tool?

More information on what constitutes a nude image or video can be found on the Report Remove webpage. Report Remove cannot take down images or videos that have only been shared through apps that use end-to-end encryption, such as WhatsApp or Snapchat. If the young person has the image or video, they should still be encouraged to make a report as the IWF will work to make sure that if the image is publicly shared online, it can be removed quickly.

What support is available to young people?

Young people can access support from the NSPCC through their Childline service. Childline's confidentiality promise also applies to users of the Report Remove tool. This means that most of the time, no one will know that a young person has submitted a report.

Using Report Remove within your organisation

Report Remove can be an effective tool to include in your organisation's safeguarding and child protection procedures but shouldn't replace any steps in your safeguarding process. You should always respond to incidents of nude image sharing in line with your organisation's procedures and national guidance. You can find out more about how to write and audit your safeguarding procedures and how to support young people with incidents of nude sharing by visiting NSPCC Learning.

When supporting a young person to use Report Remove, it's important to reassure them that they've done the right thing by telling someone.

Book of the Month October

The Marvellers
by Dhonielle Clayton
This is a magical school adventure jam-packed with marvellous details both familiar and unique.

The Conjuror world is particularly enticing, with its animal companions (Ella's mother has an alligator!).

Sequel coming soon!

The story of a new girl who doesn't quite fit in is given an unusual twist, and the more perceptive reader will see parallels with how Marvellers treat Conjurors and race relations throughout the world.

This is the first in a new series, suitable for keen readers and lovers of intricate fantasy worlds.

The Book Fair is here!

Until Lunch time on Tuesday 10th October, you'll be able to browse and buy from the Scholastic Book Fair in school.

How do we buy from the book fair?
There are several ways to buy books during the book fair.

The easiest is to bring some cash to school with you.

You can also fill in an order form to take home so that payment can be made online.

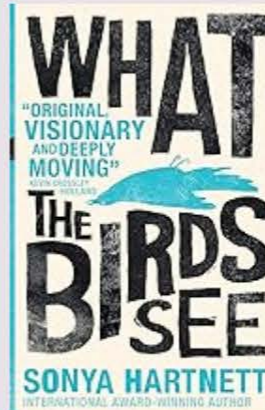

There are also gift vouchers you can buy from Scholastic and spend at the fair, but change cannot be given.

For every £1 spent we earn 40p to buy new books for our library!

Rapid Reviews by students, for students

50 TIE

Our 50 Tie is awarded to students who have participated in over 50 competitive fixtures. This is a fantastic achievement. Next stop, the 100 tie! Well done to the below students.

Geography Leicester Visit

Year 10 GCSE Geography students paid a visit to Leicester city centre on Thursday to learn more about the city's character and heritage.

Taking in a walk around areas of the city including the railway station, market, Jubilee Square and Castle Gardens, they learned about important changes to the city including recent regeneration and transport projects to support their case study for their GCSE work.

They also visited the Leicester Stories gallery to learn more about the impact of migration on the population of the city, and understand the story of the city's modern narrative.

Pembroke College Cambridge KS4 Open Day

On Tuesday, ten students from Year 11 travelled to Cambridge for the KS4 Open Day at Pembroke College. The day consisted of an introduction to the University of Cambridge, a Post-16 choices session about choosing A-levels, a subject taster into Classics ('how the gossip surrounding Julius Ceasar relates to modern day politics'!) and a lovely lunch. We also had a tour around the college with a current student and were able to ask her loads of questions. Please read below what the students thought of this event:

I enjoyed my experience at Pembroke college as it was useful and informative for my future. It gave me an insight to what my future could be like at Cambridge University and has encouraged me to aim high. The atmosphere at Pembroke was very welcoming and calm, with beautiful views from every angle. There were nice students and staff who were happy to help out and answer questions. The food was very nice and the facilities were lovely.

Sophie Underwood

On the trip to Pembroke college I was very surprised to discover that going to a university such as Cambridge was more achievable than I originally thought. Thanks to talks from members of the Cambridge admissions team I was given advice on the A-Levels that I would need to choose in order to get onto specific courses and a short talk from a student about Julius Caesar inspired me to do research on the bus trip home on what options and entrance exams I would need to complete and the grades I would need in order to go to Cambridge for an economics degree.

Isaac Davies

The trip was an eye opener to what I would experience once I was to finish my A-levels and how different it would be. The trip also displayed the quality of Cambridge University; specifically Pembroke College, which motivated me to start researching my potential route to get there. The day consisted of an ice breaking activity followed by an insightful Q&A session with some undergraduates studying a variety of subjects. After lunch we were given a taster lecture on the character of Julius Caesar, Emperor of the Roman Empire. Finally, we were given information about possible Post-16 options and the best subject choices for the course you want to take at university. We took a longer route to get back to our bus, which allowed us to walk through the beautiful city. Overall, I think it was a trip that should be hosted every year by the school for children that aim to go to a university such as Cambridge, as it shows you the quality of the institution as well as useful information on how to get there- which could motivate students to become higher achievers.

Hatim Faizi

NEWSLETTER

OCTOBER 2023

PHYSICAL ACTIVITY

To maintain a basic level of health, the Chief Medical Officer recommends children and young people aged 5 to 18 should take part in an average of at least 60 minutes of physical activity per day.

Taking part in Physical Activity has many benefits for children and young people, including; improving fitness, increasing concentration, building a stronger heart, bones and healthier muscles. Being regularly physically active improves self-esteem, lowers stress and encourages a better nights sleep.

The NHS has further information here.

Did you know?

Exercise leads to improved motor skills, better thinking and problem-solving. It's a BRAIN BOOSTER!

TRY SOMETHING NEW TODAY!

Now is a great time to try a new sport! Joining a team or trying out a new physical activity gives children the opportunity to meet new friends, develop their confidence, learn how to play by the rules, stay focused, be consistent, and work hard towards their goals. It also gives them a taste of competition and teaches them that there's always room for improvement.

2 ACTIVE TRAVEL MONTH

This year's Active Travel Month takes place throughout October and we want as many pupils as possible to get involved!

Actively travelling to school is a great way to boost a child's physical and mental health. It helps them feel alert and ready for the day. Pupils can actively travel by walking, cycling or scooting to school this month.

Last year 8,185 pupils took part in Active Travel month, can we beat that this year?

'I really enjoyed walking to school and helping the environment.'
